1/4" INDUSTRIAL PROBE STYLE HANDPIECE

American Beauty offers the widest selection of resistance soldering handpieces in the world. Our handpieces are designed and built to provide absolute performance in even the toughest environments. By generating heat instantaneously and right at the point of contact, you are able to easily handle the historically difficult soldering jobs.

A return lead is required for proper operation of a single probe handpiece. The most frequent return lead used with this handpiece is our 10512I.
